To Correspondents. In the Union and Amesican, of Sunday we published an article under the head of 'A true, living Home Insurance Company," which has elicited very consideracomment among the workingmen, and we have already received several communications on the subject, asking information relative to the enterprise. To our correspondents we can just say that the company is being organized by a number of our capitalists, and in a very short time, an opportunity will be afforded for the workingman to take advantage of the benefits to be derived from such a com

The Last Week.

This is the last week at the Rink of the renowned skater, Mr. St. Clair, whose wonderful and graceful evolutions, and almost miraculous teals of agility upon the roller skates, have attracted such universal attention and commendation during the past several weeks.
